"I am going to commit a sin, Mat. Take that for your pretty women," and, quickly drawing her hand from under her cloak, she dashed some vitriol in his face from a bottle which she had concealed.

Henes dodged and saved his eyes, but the viriol struck his mouth, cheek, and neek, and be dashed into the saloon and shouted for water. "Jim" Norton drenched his head with water and stripped the stained and burning coat, vest, and shirt from him. while others ran for a doctor. A physician was found in the neighborhood and dressed the injuries. Hones was badly disfigured yesterday morning, but went before Justice Sommer and made a complaint of atrocious assault against his wife. She was arrested last night. A bottle

Mrs. Hones is a fine-looking woman 23 years eld, and has been separated from her husband

Mrs. Hones is a fine-looking woman 23 years eld and has been separated from her husband for some time. She lives with her mother, who keeps a salcon on South Orange avenue, who keeps a salcon on South Orange avenue, and her husband pays $3 a week for her support. They have two children. Since the separation Mrs. Hones went to the salcon one day and left the two-year-old boy on the bar. Hones has since kept the boy and she has the year-old girl.

Hones said vesterday:

"Hove my wife and I believe that she loves ms. but mine is one of the worst cases of mother-in-law you ever heard of. When I married her I thought she was alone in the world. I was a rich man then, In a little while I found that I had two families to provide for. They came over from England in ship loads, and all my money went to support her relatives. My mother-in-law was a tyrannical that I finally told my wife she would have to choose between her mother and her husband. She chose her mother, and I left her. Then she had me arrested. Since then she has been watching me constantly, and I have repeatedly offered to live with her if she would leave her mother. She accused me of going with other women, and said that she got her information from men in Norton's salcon. When we met we were always friendly, and I had no reason to fear an attack last night. I think a great deal of her, but I intend to have her punished."

Appraiser Cooper has sent a letter to the Collector asking permission to examine goods on the wharves because of lack of accommodation in the Government stores.
